The Ginetta Challenge Championship

What does a season entail?

The 2011 season is contested over seven weekends, supporting the British GT/F3 Championships. The championship caters for both Ginetta G40 Challenge cars and current specification G20 race cars. All weekends are double headers, providing 14 races throughout the season, with all races counting towards the final championship positions. Championship races are broadcast on the Motors TV channel, providing exposure to large numbers of people.

A typical weekend comprises of the following:

Friday: Optional testing
Saturday: 1 x 15 minute free practice
1 x 15 minute qualifying
Sunday: 2 x 20 minute races

How much will it cost?

The Ginetta Challenge entry fee includes the following:

- 7 round/14 race championship in support of British GT/F3
- Motors TV broadcasting
- Championship registration
- Technical and spares support from Ginetta at each round

Registration/Entry fee is £390 + VAT per round

Other typical season costs:

Race fuel (based upon 50 litres per weekend): £420

Race tyres (based upon 4 dry sets and 1 wet set per year): £2900 + VAT
